Uluwatu Temple is a Balinese Hindu sea temple located in Uluwatu. The temple is regarded as one of the sad kahyangan and is dedicated to Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa in his manifestation as Rudra. The temple is built at the edge of a 70-meter-high (230 ft) cliff or rock projecting into the sea. In folklore, this rock is said to be part of Dewi Danu's petrified barque. The temple is inhabited by monkeys, who are notorious for snatching visitors' belongings. Though a small temple was claimed to have existed earlier, the structure was significantly expanded by a Javanese sage, Empu Kuturan in the 11th Century. Another sage from East Java, Dang Hyang Nirartha is credited for constructing the padmasana shrines. In the evening, you will dine at an Indian restaurant and will be driven to the hotel for overnight stay.

After breakfast, the tour will begin with watching Barong Dance, then visit Celuk the center of gold and silver works, Mas the center of woodcarvings, Ubud the center of Balinese paintings. Ubud is a town on the Indonesian island of Bali in Ubud District, located amongst rice paddies and steep ravines in the central foothills of the Gianyar regency. Promoted as an arts and culture centre, it has developed a large tourism industry. Ubud's population of about 74,320 people] is dwarfed by the more than 3 million foreign tourists who visit every year]. The area surrounding the town is made up of small farms, rice paddies, agroforestry plantations, and tourist accommodations. As of 2018, more tourists visited Ubud than Denpasar in southern Bali. Your Lunch at Indian Restaurant. After lunch the tour will move to Kintamani, the highlight of this tour is the magnificent view of mount and Lake Batur with the smoky Agung Volcano in the background. Kintamani is a village on the western edge of the larger caldera wall of Gunung Batur in Bali, Indonesia. It is on the same north-south road as Penelokan and has been used as a stopping place to view the Gunung Batur region. Kintamani is also known for Pura Tuluk Biyu's 1,000-year-old "Rites of Peace" stone tablets and the Kintamani dog. It is situated next to Mount Batur.
